

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF LEE COUNTY

The Junior League of Lee County is a volunteer organization of over 150 women who live and work in Lee County.

MISSION

The Junior League of Lee County, Inc., is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

EVENT PROCEEDS

The Junior League of Lee County raises funds to support various community organizations that focus on arts and literacy for children in Lee County. Specific organizations funded in 2009-2010 include:

- Child Advocacy Center of East Alabama
Funding provided art and play therapy books and materials for abused children
- LynnTerra Ballet
Funding assisted with the production of the Nutcracker Ballet
- Lee County Literacy Coalition
Funding provided 5th and 6th graders at Auburn Day Care with 241 books
- Dean Road Elementary
Funding provided 43 sets of "We Both Read" and canvas tote bags to 1st through 3rd graders to become better readers
- City of Auburn Parks & Recreation
Funding supported the Adventures in Art Program which exposed 995 4th and 5th graders to traditional craft, music, dance and storytelling in Alabama.
- Jule Collins Smith Museum of Fine Art
Funding provided transportation to Lee County's Schools to visit the museum and supported the Young Artists Program
